Biographical Note

Henry F. Schricker was the Governor of Indiana from 1941 to 1945 and 1949 to 1952. Born in Starke County, Indiana to Bavarian immigrants, the governor received his education in local schools through eighth grade. He worked in his family's grocery and merchantile store and took bookkeeping classes before deciding to read for the law. He was admitted to the Indiana State Bar in 1906 and then worked as a cashier at a bank before purchasing the Starke County Democrat in 1908. After eleven years, he sold the paper and returned to banking. He became involved in Democratic politics in the 1920's and served as a state senator from 1933 to 1937 and lieutenant governor from 1937 to 1941 before becoming Indiana's 36th governor. He married Maude L. Brown in 1914 and they had 3 children. He passed away on December 28, 1966.
